Berlin public transport

With a valid ticket, ticket holders have access to all public transport in Berlin: S-Bahn, U-Bahn, buses, trams and ferries. The fare depends on the tariff zone and the ticket's period of validity.

Tariff Zones & Network Maps:

Berlin is divided into three tariff zones: AB, BC und ABC. Tariff zone AB includes the urban area to the city boundary. Zone ABC additionally includes Berlin's surrounding area and Potsdam Hauptbahnhof.

The conference location at Berlin-Adlershof is still within tariff zone B, so you need an "AB-ticket" if you want to go there from Berlin center.

Tegel airport is also still within the zones AB. If you have to go from or to Berlin-Schönefeld airport, you need to include zone "C" in your ticket.

One Way Ticket:

A single fare ticket (Einzelfahrschein) is valid for one person and a two hour journey through the city.

Note: It is not allowed to travel towards the direction of the starting point. For that purpose a new single-ticket must be purchased.

Fares single fare tickets:

Tariff AB: 2.90 Euros

Tariff BC: 3.30 Euros

Tariff ABC: 3.60 Euros

Day Ticket for one Person:

A day ticket (Tageskarte) allows travelling during the whole day for as many trips as desired. Transportation fares for up to three children aged six to fourteen are included in the ticket price. The ticket is valid from the day of its validation until 3 a.m. the following day and costs 8.60 Euros in tariff zone AB and 9.60 Euros in tariff zone ABC.

Tickets can be bought at vending machines at the stations. Navigation is also in English.
